Our Spokespeople in the Press

Fox Business

"In the public markets things trade up and down all the time.. the private markets operate a little more slowly. And so we're trying to bring a bit more visibility there at EquityZen".—Phil Haslett, Founder & Chief Strategy Officer

Bloomberg TV

In a quiet IPO market "there is a lot of pent up demand from investors looking to participate in growth stories and really get to bet on the innovation that is happening in these private companies that are growing quite rapidly".—Brianne Lynch, Head of Market Insight

Fox Business

"We're seeing continued interest in a lot of different sectors in the private markets...and shareholders are continuing to want to sell...so there are deals to be made".—Akshata Bailkeri, Head of Research

In the news

Wall Street Journal

"A diversified portfolio of pre-IPO investments can provide the growth-equity type return that many investors are missing in the public markets and we've proven this through the strong performance of EquityZen's managed funds."

—Atish Davda, Founder & CEO

Crunchbase News

"EquityZen fields a call almost every day from a unicorn company's CFO, or general counsel asking about providing liquidity to employees, according to the platform."

—Phil Haslett, Founder & Chief Strategy Officer

Business Insider

"EquityZen is now one of the largest platforms for trading pre-IPO shares, with over 200,000 verified accredited investors on its platform, up 150% from a year ago."
